offer the following vacancy

1 Dragonflies Group Worker

20 hours per week – Term –Time (41 weeks)

To be worked over 4-5 days

£ 9,245 per annum, plus £1,067 holiday pay, totalling £10,312

Funding until October 2023

FSN is seeking to appoint a highly motivated person to work in the specialist area of childhood bereavement. The successful applicant will have proven skills in developing, planning and delivering peer group support sessions for children and young people, together with the ability to support and work with families.

It is expected that the post holder will have the ability to liaise with other professionals and agencies in order to ensure Dragonflies is well promoted and accessible to all. In addition the post holder must be able to assist in the recruitment and ongoing support of volunteers.

The project requires a group leader, for the Hastings area. The group worker will deliver the project in local schools and community venues across the designated areas. Hours will be flexible, occasional weekend or evening sessions will be required.

The post holder will have proven experience in working with vulnerable children and young people as well as supporting families and either have knowledge of bereavement or be willing to be trained. Experience of supporting, involving and working alongside volunteers is essential.

Closing date: Wednesday 9th January 2019– 12pm

Interviews: Tuesday 15th January 2019
