A Training Project running across Rural Rother and Wealden to develop and strengthen
local communities

The ROVTE project will recruit local community members to gain knowledge and experience through accredited training in order that they can deliver interesting Workshops and Events in their local area to help sustain rural communities

Local residents will be able to gain a
City and Guilds Level 3 Award in Education and Training

Early Years Groups
will be supported
and up-skilled with relevant Early Years
training

Workshops and Non Accredited courses
will be delivered and co-facilitated by trained local residents

Trained local residents will host 4 Community Events a year at local venues in identified Rural Rother and Wealden
